

ADVISORY OPINION SUMMARIES:

AO 91-003

The "Campaign Financing and Disclosure Act of 1990" is a means to require full disclosure of the source of all funds used in political campaigns, limit amounts of contributions and enforce the law. It does not pertain to solicitations of out of state contributors for in-state candidates or solicitation of in-state contributions for non-Delaware candidates.