

ADVISORY OPINION SUMMARIES

AO 93-001

Corporate advertising solicited by a Political Action Committee (PAC) for use in a special event program, guide, etc., would be considered a contribution by the purchaser to the PAC. 15 Del. C. Section 8002 specifies that any expenditure or transfer of money for the benefit of any candidate or political committee, to include the purchase of goods or services sold to raise funds for a campaign, is considered a contribution.
