OFFICIAL RESULTS OF GENERAL ELECTION
( EXCLUDING WRITE IN VOTE )

1990

PREPARED BY
Richard B. Harper, Jr.
COMMISSIONER OF ELECTIONS

FOREWORD

The results of the 1990 General Election once again confirm that Delaware voters are concerned citizens. In light of major world-wide and local events, which included a major military buildup in the Persian Gulf, the early indications of recession, a significant decrease in State revenues and consequent State fiscal belt tightening, and strong anti-incumbent feelings nationwide, Delaware's voter turnout was above the national average. Slightly more than 60% of our registered voters cast their ballots.

Although encouraging at face value, voter turnout also indicates that many voters cast their imaginary ballot by staying away from the polls. Others refuse to register or vote due to lack of understanding of registration or voting procedures. It is this group of potential voters that we must encourage to participate in the democratic process, a privilege that less fortunate people around the world are seeking to experience. We must encourage their participation just as we must encourage political involvement. Only if we can provide viable choices for our voters will the political process work. It is imperative that each of us encourage those with political aspirations and the non-voters to get involved.

These results also include Primary Election figures which indicate some very keen and close competitions. Unfortunately for the electoral process, there were many unchallenged candidates in the General Election. This is unfortunate in that our system can only be truly representative if there is a choice of candidates and/or issues for the voter. Those choices, coupled with ease of registration and access to the polling place, will encourage greater voter participation. We must continue to work to that end.
