About The Mock Election

We are a public, non-partisan group. Our steering committee members are drawn from interested individuals, representatives of the state community, government and educational groups. We welcome persons who wish to serve the Delaware community by inspiring our young people to learn and to vote.

Each year the Mock Election Steering Committee sets goals and objectives that are linked to the Department of Education's Educational Standards for Social Studies, as well as, current information for young people about elections and voting. The curriculum is written locally by Delaware teachers.

Over time this project has become larger with more participants. The voting process is completely electronic. Our long term goal is for all students in Delaware's public, private or parochial schools to achieve 100% participation in voting during the Mock Election. The election ends with a convention at Legislative Hall. Two student delegates from each school district come to the convention to read their district's election results. Delaware's election results are reported to the National Student/Parent Mock Election organization who is responsible for reporting the nationwide mock election results.

Vote Confirmation

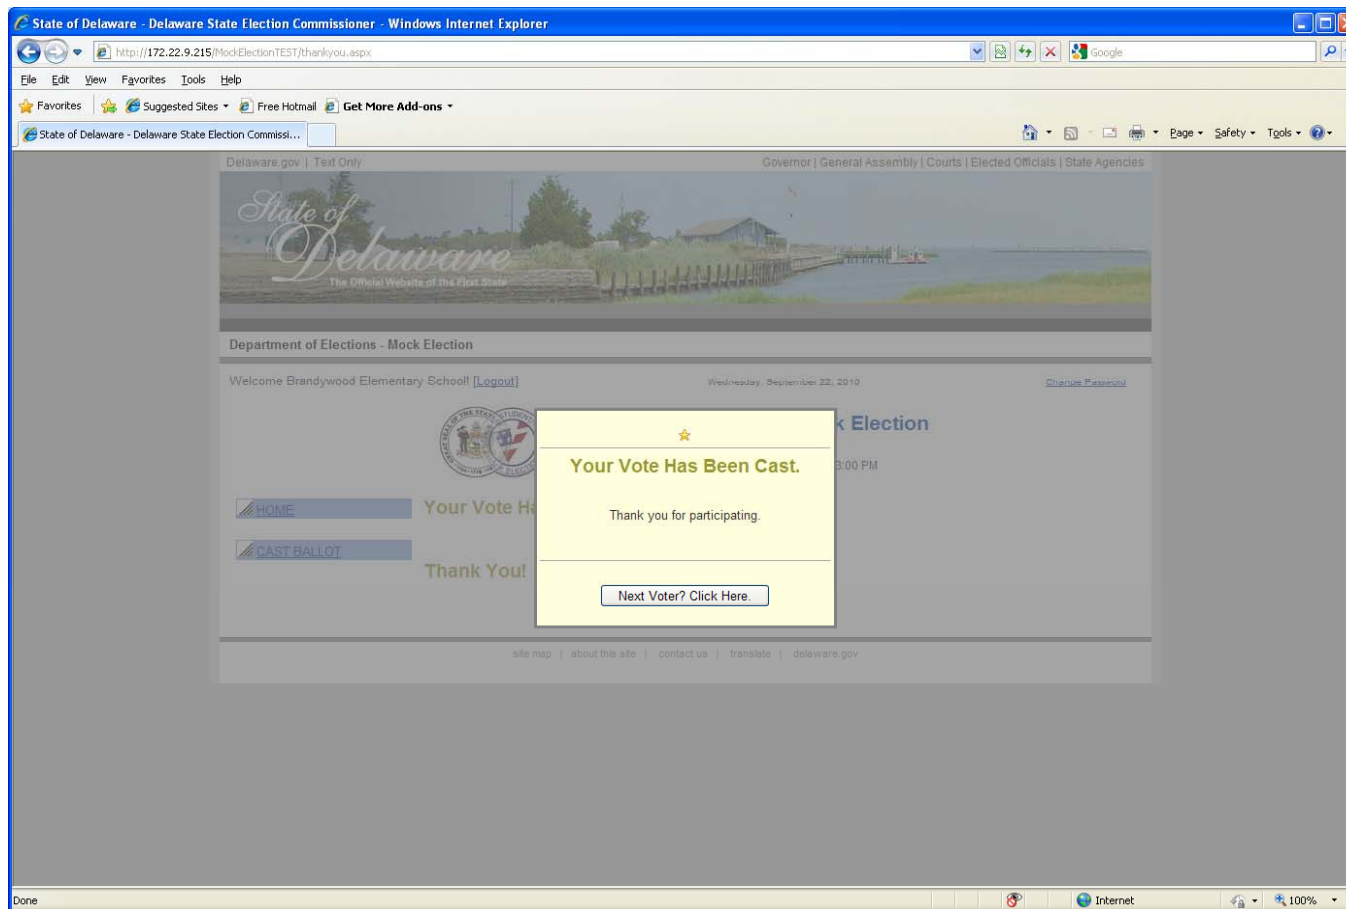

Each voter will confirm that they are ready to cast their vote.

A screenshot of a Windows Internet Explorer browser window. The address bar shows "http://172.22.9.215/ModElectionTEST/castballot.aspx". The page content is a ballot for the Delaware State Election Commissioner. It lists various offices and candidates with radio buttons for selection. A yellow modal dialog box with a warning icon is centered on the screen, asking "Are you sure you want to submit your vote?" with "Yes" and "No" buttons. A blue quote box on the right side of the page reads: "Democracy is a form of government that substitutes election by the incompetent many for appointment by the corrupt few. --George Bernard Shaw". At the bottom of the page, there are "Reset" and "Submit" buttons, and a "Submit Vote" button. The browser's status bar at the bottom shows "Internet" and "100%".

Vote Confirmation

A confirmation appears after voting and the next vote can be cast.

Closing Polls

- Polls are closed at 3 PM each day during the 3 day voting period.
- Reports for your school district are available to certain administration members via the web.
- Statewide results are announced at Legislative Hall at the Mock Election Convention.
