Ballot-Eligible: This indicates that a party has at least the minimum number of registered voters affiliated with the party to nominate candidates for the November 5, 2024, Delaware General Election Ballot. The Department also requires a party nominating candidates to complete a Certificate of Party Title confirming party officers eligible to nominate candidates.

No Party: This party affiliation refers to registered voters “unaffiliated” with any political party.

*No-Party AVR: This party affiliation refers to those individuals registered to vote per the provisions of Delaware Code, to 15 Del. C. § 2050A (Automatic Voter Registration [AVR] at the Division of Motor Vehicles and other agencies). Individuals registered via this Code provision are registered as No Party and are noted in the voter registration reports as “No Party - AVR”. These voters may affiliate with a political party through the date of the first primary election following their registration via AVR. If these voters choose not to affiliate with a political party by the date of the first primary following their registration via AVR, their party affiliation will be updated to “No Party”, and they will be eligible to affiliate with a political party, if they wish, during any period in which party affiliation changes are permitted per Delaware Code.
