Official Results of General Election

(EXCLUDING WRITE IN VOTE)

1986

Prepared by
JOHN G. DAVIS, JR.
Commissioner of Elections

FOREWORD

The year 1986 saw Delaware voters participate in their one-hundredth General Election. This booklet contains the results of Delaware's collective decision on who will be our leaders.

We are providing for the first time the results of Delaware's Primary Elections. Primary Elections are an important aspect of our nominating process and generate considerable data for political analysis and discussion.

As For the General Election, once again Delaware's voters displayed an uncanny independence that makes their voting behavior impossible to categorize.

The 1986 General Election saw encouraging and discouraging signs regarding the electorate's participation. Our registration efforts were rewarded with the largest every off-year registration totals. However, Delaware was part of the national trend where registered voters stayed home on election day. The causes of voter apathy are many and won't be solved immediately. But, we owe it to ourselves and our society to increase involvement at all levels. The right to vote is the cornerstone of all our other rights. After 200 years the responsibility to govern still rests on the shoulders of our citizens. It is a right and responsibility that must be used to be used wisely.
