FOREWORD

The 1992 General Election Results show that, historically, the largest number of Delaware citizens voted in this election. There were unprecedented numbers of new registrations and similar increases in voter turnout. And, once again, Delaware cast its electoral votes for the successful presidential candidate.

Of particular note in this election was the interest created by an independent national candidate in the presidential race and new party candidates in Delaware elections. Relative newcomers to the political process sparked debate and interest. It holds true that an interested voter will cast his/her vote.

The results presented herein include Primary Election figures. For the first time in many years the Primary included both major parties on a statewide level. Highly spirited campaigns brought candidates to all parts of our State, a healthy sign in an exciting election year.

Although we experienced an increase in registrations and voters, less than 60% of Delaware's eligible voting public cast a vote; many incumbents ran unopposed. We must continue to encourage citizens to be involved as candidates and voters. Only through individual involvement does our democratic system truly function as a representative form of government. Ease of registration and access to the polls for everyone are important, however, it is only when a voter is interested that a vote will be cast. It is incumbent on each of us to do all we can to keep that interest alive for the well being of our State and Nation.

Richard B. Harper, Jr.

State Election Commissioner
