Audit of Seaford School District Referendum Voting Machines- Polling Place Audit

The meeting was called to order by Kenneth McDowell at 10:00 a.m. on March 12, 2020. Mr. McDowell gave a brief overview regarding what the audit would entail. There were no questions, so the audits commenced.

This was a single polling place audit therefore all machines from the Seaford Highschool polling place were recounted. Staff immediately paired up and began the audit at 10:15 a.m. This audit consisted of a manual recount of the votes cast on machines SC1285, SC1286, SC1287, SC1288, SC1289, and SC1290. All votes were the same as reported.

Kenneth McDowell verified the results and took public comments. There were no comments or discussion. Mr. McDowell thanked Commissioner Albence and the members of Sussex County staff that assisted with the audit and adjourned at 11:00 a.m.
