Join our team to conduct fair and impartial elections, serving all voters equally and respectfully!

Election Officer Team Members: Work as a team to ensure smooth, transparent, and impartial elections as you represent the Department of Elections on the frontlines in the service of the voters of the State of Delaware.

Job duties and responsibilities: Set-up the polling place, voting machines, poll books, process and assist voters, complete forms, shut-down the polling place and return materials to the Department.

- Inspector Polling Place Manager
 - Pay: $350 for election day + $50 for training class = $400
- Judges 2 per Polling Place. Work with Inspector to decide challenges and resolve issues.
 - Pay: $275 for election day + $50 for training class = $325
- Clerks work with Inspector and Judges to serve voters at the Polling Place.
 - Pay: $250 for election day + $50 for training class = $300
- Media Clerk clerk duties and deliver media sticks to collection site when polls close.
 - Pay: $250 for election day + $25 for Media Stick delivery after polls close + $50 for training class = $325
- As noted in pay detailed above, all Election Officers get an additional $50.00 per election when they attend a 3-hour training class.

Work schedule:

- 1. Attend training course (@ 3 hour class) before each election
- 2. Election Day Shift is the ENTIRE day, 6:00 a.m. until about 10:00 p.m. You must stay at the Polling Place the whole day and cannot leave until the closing procedures are finished.

Thank you for your interest!
