Why Vote?

Voting is the process used to elect people for offices such as the U.S. President, U.S. Congress, Governor, State and Local Legislators or Officials who make the laws, design programs, and decide how tax dollars are spent. Voting gives citizens a chance to be heard.

Is voting important?

Voting is your right and responsibility as a citizen. When you vote, you are making important decisions about how Delaware and the United States are run. You should choose candidates you think will do the best job. If you do not vote, you are letting other people make these decisions for you.

Remember, your vote is secret. Nobody will know how you vote unless you wish to tell them. When you vote, you may choose to vote for only some of the offices or for all of them. Even if you do not vote on every single office, the votes that you do make will still count. It is up to you to vote for what is important.

Every opinion counts. Your vote matters!

Why should I vote?

- Because I care about what happens in Delaware and in the United States.
- Because I want to make changes in my community, state, or country.
- Because I want to keep things from changing; I like the way things are now.
- Because I want to set an example for others, especially children.
- Because I want my voice to be heard!

You may register to vote in Delaware if you:

- Are a citizen of the United States, AND
- Are a resident of Delaware (Delaware is your home), AND
- Will be 18 years old on or before the date of the next General Election

You may not register to vote in Delaware if you:

- Have been adjudged mentally incompetent. Adjudged mentally incompetent refers to a specific finding in a judicial guardianship or equivalent proceeding, based on clear and convincing evidence that the individual has a severe cognitive impairment which precludes exercise of basic voting judgment; OR
- You were convicted of a felony and have not completed your sentence, OR
- You were convicted of a disqualifying* felony and have not been pardoned.

*List of Disqualifying Felonies:

- Murder or manslaughter, (except vehicular homicide);
- Any felony constituting an offense against public administration involving bribery or improper influence or abuse of office, or any like offense under the laws of any state or local jurisdiction, or of the United States, or of the District of Columbia; or
- Any felony constituting a sexual offense, or any like offense under the laws of any state or local jurisdiction or of the United States or of the District of Columbia.

You must submit a completed voter registration application to register to vote. Some of the places you can register are:

- ✓ On the web at <https://iVOTE.DE.gov>.
- ✓ At any of the Department of Elections' offices or the Office of the State Election Commissioner
- ✓ At Division of Motor Vehicle offices when applying for, renewing or updating a Driver's License or State ID Card
- ✓ At State Service Centers (Delaware Department of Health and Social Services, Division of Social Services, Department of Labor) while conducting business.
- ✓ At Armed Forces Recruitment Offices when applying for services
- ✓ At Institutions of higher education when you register for classes
- ✓ By mail – read the information below and fill out the All-In-One Form to Register to Vote or Update Your Information. You will find this application on pages 14-16 of this booklet.

When registering to vote, provide a valid Delaware Driver's License number or a Delaware Identification Card number. If you have neither, provide your full Social Security Number.

Warning: If you register to vote even though you know you are not eligible, you can be fined between $50.00 - $200.00 or imprisoned for 30 days to two years, or both.

After you turn in a completed application, the Department of Elections Office for your county will send you a polling place card or notify you if your application is rejected. The polling place card tells you where to vote (your neighborhood polling place). If you do not receive your card or other notification within 10 business days of turning in your application, or if you have any questions regarding your registration, please call the Department of Elections Office for your county.

The last day to register is the fourth Saturday before a primary or general election, or 10 days before a Special Election. Your registration date is the postmark date, if mailed, or the date that your application is received by the Department of Elections office for your county or the Office of the State Election Commissioner, if delivered or sent by any other manner.

Presidential Primary Election

Held on the fourth Tuesday in April every four years.

Registration deadline is the fourth Saturday before the election.

Primary Election

Held on the second Tuesday after the first Monday in September in even numbered years.

Registration deadline is the fourth Saturday before the election.

General Election

Held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in even numbered years.

Registration deadline is the fourth Saturday before the election.

Absentee voting begins approximately 45 days before any election.

Are there any other elections held in Delaware?

If a vacancy occurs in the middle of a term, a Special Election will be held. A Notice of Election will be published on the website for the Department of Elections Office for your county, local newspapers, and at the County Courthouse. Please contact the Department of Elections Office for your county for information on voter registration and absentee deadlines.

Public School Board elections are held the second Tuesday in May of each year. You do not need to be a registered voter to participate but you do need to be a U.S. citizen, a resident of the district, and at least 18 years of age on the day of the election. You do not need to own property in the district to vote. Also, if you have more than one child attending in the same school district, you may only cast one vote in a school election. School districts occasionally hold referenda to raise funds for operating expenses or construction projects. The respective School Boards set the date for the referenda.

Municipal elections are held based on each town's charter. Contact your town directly for more election information.

You may vote by Absentee Ballot if you are unable to vote at your polling place on Election Day for a reason stated in Delaware's Constitution. To help you prepare for the election, you can request a sample ballot or view one online at <https://iVOTE.DE.gov>. Sample ballots will also be available at every polling place, along with instructions on how the voting process works. A sample ballot shows you what offices and candidates you can vote for in the election. You can mark your sample ballot at home and bring it with you to help you remember what choices you made.

There are different ways to vote:

- ✓ You can go to your local polling place on Election Day.
- ✓ You can vote by absentee ballot in person in the Department of Elections office for your county, or by mail.

Polling Places are specific locations set up for voting. They can be in many different locations such as churches, libraries, schools, or other types of public buildings.

To find your polling place:

- Check the address listed on your polling place card
- Visit <https://iVOTE.DE.gov>
- Contact the Department of Elections
 - Kent County Office: (302) 739-4498
 - New Castle County Office: (302) 577-3464
 - Sussex County Office: (302) 856-5367
 - Office of the State Election Commissioner: (302) 739-4277

The polls are open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Election Day.

If you vote on Election Day, you must vote at your assigned polling place.

Absentee Ballots may be used if you are a registered voter who cannot get to your polling place on Election Day. For example, if you are out of town, or in the hospital, you may vote by absentee ballot. You must complete an application to request an absentee ballot. The application can be found on pages 12-13 of this booklet.

You may request an Absentee Ballot Application from the Department of Elections Office for your county in person, online, by mail or by telephone. One request can cover all elections in an election cycle. If you meet the special qualifications listed on the application, you may request for permanent absentee voter status. If you would like to have an absentee ballot mailed to you, please submit an application to the Department of Elections Office for your county by noon on the Friday before an election.

When you receive your ballot in the mail, follow all instructions carefully – mail it back or have it delivered to the Department of Elections Office that issued them to you. Do not return voted absentee ballots to your polling place. Absentee ballots received after 8 p.m. on Election Day will not be counted. The U. S. Postal Service recommends that to insure delivery in time to be counted that you mail absentee ballots back to your local Election Office at least 7 days before an election.

How do I decide who or what to vote for?

Before you vote, you should learn about who is running for office. Find out how they feel about the different issues. Do they share your opinions or disagree with them? Do you think they will listen to you if they are elected? If they are already in office, do you think they have done a good job? Think about the things that are most important to you. What would you like to see changed? What rights do you want protected? Ask people you trust how they will vote and why. You do not need to vote the same way as your friends or family, but their advice may be helpful to you.

Some of the issues people might base their votes on are:

- Transportation
- Education
- Jobs
- Health care
- Affordable housing
- More services for people with disabilities
- Taxes

What are political parties and how do I join one?

When you register to vote, you may choose to declare a political party. Different political parties have differing opinions about the issues. Currently the Democratic, Republican, Green, Independent Party of Delaware, and Libertarian parties have ballot status in Delaware.

In Delaware, only registered Democrats and Republicans can vote in the State's Primary and Presidential Primary. Only registered Democrats can vote in Democratic primaries. Only registered Republicans can vote in Republican primaries. Minor parties (all other parties that are not Democratic or Republican) hold conventions to select their candidates.

In the General Election, you may vote for any candidate of any party. Your vote is secret.

How can I learn about the candidates and issues?

You can find out about the candidates by reading the newspaper, the Internet, watching candidates debate on television, listening to the radio, and/or attending campaign events. You may also meet candidates in person and ask them what they will do if they are elected. You may see campaign ads on television and on the radio. You will probably get campaign materials in the mail. Ads are designed to try to convince you to vote for a particular candidate.

What to expect at my polling place.

Voting can be confusing if you have never voted before. This guide provides helpful information, and election workers are trained to help make the voting process easier for you. Don't be afraid to ask for whatever assistance you need.

Remember to bring identification.

When you enter the polling place, you will be asked your name. If this is your first time voting and you did not provide the required documentation when you registered to vote, you must show a current one of the following:

- ✓ Valid photo identification
(DE Driver's License or State ID)
- ✓ Utility bill
- ✓ Bank statement
- ✓ Government check
- ✓ Paycheck or pay stub
- ✓ Lease or mortgage
- ✓ Other government document that shows your name and address

After identifying yourself, the poll worker will find your name on the poll list. If you voted before and did not bring your ID, you will still be able to vote after you complete an Affidavit of Affirmation of Voter Identity. You will then be asked to sign the list, or place a mark next to your name. If you are physically unable to sign, someone may do so for you. You will be handed an Activation Card and directed to proceed to the voting booth. By State law, during Primary Elections your name and party affiliation will be announced before you enter the voting booth. This is to allow challenges to your eligibility. By State law, during General Elections only your name is announced.

Can I get help when I vote?

Don't be afraid to ask for help if you need it. You have the right to ask for assistance when voting. You can ask a poll worker to show you how to operate the voting machine. If you still do not understand, do not hesitate to ask them to show you again.

You can also ask for help with casting your ballot if you have problems reading, if you have difficulty with the English language, or if you have a disability that prevents you from being able to operate a voting machine by yourself. Let someone know that you will need assistance when you first arrive – while you are giving your name to the poll worker. You can ask poll workers or any other person you choose to assist you. The law does not permit your employer or an agent of your labor union to assist you in voting.

If you ask for help from poll workers to cast your ballot, it is required that two workers from different parties assist you.

What is it like in the voting booth?

When it is your turn to vote, you will go into the voting booth. To begin, insert the Activation Card into the Card Slot.

Touch the candidate's name for whom you wish to vote. Your selection is highlighted in green. After making ALL of your selections, press the green "Print Ballot" button on the bottom right corner of the screen. You may press "Return to Ballot" to review your selections or "Print" if you are ready. The voting machine will print your selections for you to review in the window next to the screen. Always check to make sure that your printed ballot reflects the choices you made. If there is discrepancy, touch the "Quit" button on your screen and wait for a poll worker to help you. The voting machine will alert a poll worker to assist you through the process of issuing a new ballot. To vote your ballot as printed, touch the green "Vote" button.

It is always best to double-check your selections before pressing the green Vote button. Once your vote is final, you may not change it.

All polling places must be accessible.

By law, all polling places must be accessible to persons with disabilities. Everyone should be able to get into their polling place: doors should be wide enough for wheelchairs, ramps or elevators available as needed, parking spaces should be marked and walkways should be clear and level. Voter complaints regarding accessibility are often referred to Delaware's Architectural Accessibility Board for assessment.

The handheld device, UVC, lets visually impaired voters hear the ballot to vote without assistance.

All Delaware voting machines are accessible to all voters. Universal Voting Console (UVC), a headset and handheld device that allows visually impaired – or anyone including those with literacy issues – to vote unassisted, is available in all polling places. Voters may also bring someone to assist them or have two poll workers (from different political parties) help them operate the voting machine.

What happens if I make a mistake?

If you vote on a machine, you have the opportunity to review your choices before casting your final vote. Unfortunately, once you push the "vote" button, you cannot change your vote.

What happens if I am told I cannot vote?

If your name does not appear on the poll list, the poll worker will check to see if you are registered to vote and are in the correct polling place. This may involve calling the Department of Elections. If you are in the wrong polling place, the poll worker will assist with directions to the correct polling place. If your name is not on the poll list but you believe you registered to vote, the Department of Elections can request a court order from a Superior Court judge.

If all else fails, you can vote a provisional ballot, available only in federal elections. These ballots are counted only if you are registered to vote and are voting in the correct polling place. Only federal offices are on provisional ballots.

If your only choices are to vote by provisional ballot or not vote at all, it is better to cast the provisional ballot.

Where can I file a complaint about voting?

If your polling place is not accessible, you have complaints about access to voting, or you believe your rights have been violated, you may contact the Department of Elections Office for your county, the Office of the State Election Commissioner, or the disabilities offices listed below.
