The purpose of this notice is to:

1. Inform you that, as of the DMV Transaction Date listed above, you are registered to vote in Delaware as an unaffiliated voter;
2. Provide you the opportunity to choose a party affiliation;
3. Provide you the opportunity to review your eligibility to register and cancel your registration if you are ineligible or do not want to be registered to vote at this time; and
4. Advise you of Delaware's Address Confidentiality Program, outlined in 15 Del. C. § 1303.

Please carefully review this entire letter then complete and sign the enclosed form and return it to the Department of Elections in the provided postage-paid envelope within thirty days of the date of this letter.

1. You may complete an application to update your party affiliation at <https://ivote.de.gov>.

2. You may mark your choice of party on the included form. Complete and sign the enclosed form and return it to the Department of Elections in the provided postage-paid envelope.

Can I submit to the Department my AVR Response form to cancel my voter registration?

- No, per Delaware law, the Department cannot process an AVR voter's Response form to cancel their voter registration if they have completed a transaction to update their voter registration record after they have been automatically registered.
